

Trial Story Introduction

1

Wagon Story:
Agreement Trial

Sam said something to Robin.
Then Robin painted Sam's wagon orange.

Agreement vs. Disagreement

Two adults overheard and agreed that Sam wanted Robin to paint the wagon orange.

Test: Inference

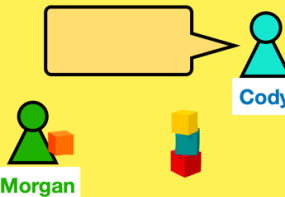

What did Sam say to Robin?

1. Please paint my wagon orange. (unambiguous)
2. My wagon would look better in a new color. (ambiguous)
3. My wagon has four wheels. (random)

2

Tower Story:
Disagreement Trial

Cody said something to Morgan.
Then Morgan finished Cody's block tower.

Two adults overheard and disagreed about whether Cody wanted Morgan to finish the tower.

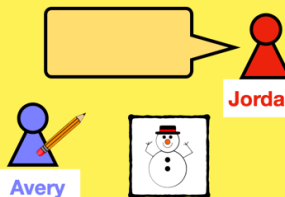

What did Cody say to Morgan?

1. Please finish my block tower. (unambiguous)
2. My tower is almost finished. (ambiguous)
3. My tower is made of blocks. (random)

3

Snowman Story:
Agreement Trial

Jordan said something to Avery.
Then Avery drew a hat on Jordan's snowman.

Two adults overheard and agreed that Jordan wanted Avery to draw a hat on the snowman.

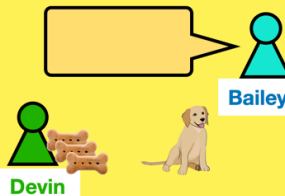

What did Jordan say to Avery?

1. Please draw a hat on my snowman. (unambiguous)
2. My snowman would look better if it was wearing something. (ambiguous)
3. My snowman has buttons. (random)

4

Dog Story:
Disagreement Trial

Bailey said something to Devin.
Then Devin fed Bailey's dog three treats.

Two adults overheard and disagreed about whether Bailey wanted Devin to feed the dog.

What did Bailey say to Devin?

1. Please feed my dog three treats. (unambiguous)
2. My dog eats so many treats. (ambiguous)
3. My dog has cute ears. (random)